
Mid-State STUDENT IPAD AGREEMENT

Mid-State IPAD POLICY

Mid-State will provide iPads for students in iPad designated courses. Any student receiving an iPad will review and sign the Mid-State Student iPad Agreement prior to receiving the iPad. The agreement outlines the purpose of use and expectations for using the iPad.

This agreement establishes the following expectations and guidelines for iPad use:

- The iPad is Mid-State Technical College property and will only be available to students while they are enrolled in iPad designated courses at the college.
- Students must use the iPad in accordance with Mid-State technology user agreement policies.
- Students should have no expectation of privacy regarding the device or its contents.
- Students must return the iPad to Mid-State when requested by the instructor or someone from technology.
- Use of the iPad may be rescinded if students are found not to be using the iPad according to the guidelines and policies.
- Students must take appropriate steps to protect the iPad and data against loss or theft. (For example - Do not leave the iPad in a public place or in plain view in a locked or unlocked car.)
- Do not loan your iPad, even temporarily, to anyone else. It is for your use only.
- Immediately report the loss, damage, or theft of the iPad to your instructor.
- Students must accept the financial responsibility for the loss or theft of the iPad at the cost of a replacement iPad.
- Students may not jailbreak or otherwise tamper with the iPad operating system.
- Mid-State is not responsible for lost data on the iPad. You may back up the data using drop box, OneDrive, iCloud, or other cloud storage apps.

Mid-State NETWORK USAGE POLICY

Students using the iPads must use them in compliance with the Mid-State Technical College Network Usage Policy found on the following website: <http://www.mstc.edu/student-resources/technology/network-usage>.

SIGNED AGREEMENT

I understand the terms of the agreement and will accept the loan of the iPad for the course on the basis of these terms.
